

The EWA lawsuit has now been filed against the USFWS in the U.S. District in San Angelo. It now becomes a waiting game to see what the Feds do next. The new rule has not been posted as of today but that could change at any time. We will keep our membership up-to-date with the latest information concerning the three species as well as any other thing that affects your ability to conduct business.

Charly Seale,

Executive Director EWA
